Confidentiality & Privacy Policy

The law protects the relationship between a client and a psychotherapist, and any information gathering during this relationship cannot be disclosed to anyone without written permission.

Exceptions include:

- Suspected child abuse or dependant adult or elder abuse, for which I am required by law to report this to the appropriate authorities immediately.
- If a client is threatening serious bodily harm to another person/s, I must notify the police and inform the intended victim.
- If a client intends to harm himself or herself, I will make every effort to enlist their cooperation in insuring their safety. If they do not cooperate, I will take further measures without their permission that are provided to me by law in order to ensure their safety.

Acknowledgement:

I have read and understand the above privacy policy, and I agree to its terms.
